An enriching learning experience awaits you! We are seeking a research assistant/intern to work this summer as much as 20 hours per week in Rehovot at the Weizmann Archives. There is a train from the Tel Aviv area. Work includes learning about Chaim Weizmann's crucial activities in establishing Israel through reading and computerizing his letters. Through the Emory Institute for the Study of Modern Israel (ISMI) we can offer $12.50 per hour. Payment will be made in funds from the United States, through invoicing ISMI. Work can commence almost immediately and will last at least through the end of August or beyond.

Please prepare and send a two page resume for submission that includes educational experience, computer expertise, other relevant experience, a phone number and e-mail address.
